Quotation Provided by Police and Crime Commissioners Office 25.02.2025

Police and Crime Commissioner John Campion said: “As your voice in policing, I always value hearing from councillors and the public.

“Committed to ensuring your police force is delivering on your priorities, the meeting will be an opportunity for you to have your say on where you feel things are working well, as well as where improvements can be made.

“I look forward to answering any questions you may have about policing in your community.”
